LETTER 7 – NOTICE TO CREDITORS

London Gazette Notice — Trustee Act 1925 s.27

Draft for submission to the London Gazette. Placing this notice protects the personal representative from personal liability for unknown debts once the two-month period expires — provided every notice the section requires has been given.

How to use this notice: submit to the London Gazette at thegazette.co.uk under Personal Legal → Deceased Estates. The fee is £115.86 including VAT for an online notice (2026 rates). The notice must be placed before final distribution. Once the two-month period has elapsed without a claim, Trustee Act 1925 s.27 protects you from personal liability for debts you did not know about — but only if you gave every notice the section requires. A Gazette notice is required in every case, and if the estate includes land you must also advertise in a newspaper circulating in the district where that land sits. A Gazette notice alone does not protect an estate that includes land. Where both notices are needed, the date in the notice must fall at least two months after whichever of the two was published later. The protection also covers only unknown claims: it is no defence against a creditor you were already aware of, and it does not affect a beneficiary's right to trace assets. If the estate includes land, or you have any reason to think a claim may exist, take advice before you distribute.

LONDON GAZETTE – NOTICE TO CREDITORS – DRAFT

David James Pemberton, lately of _____, who died on _____.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to section 27 of the Trustee Act 1925, that all persons having claims against or any interest in the estate of David James Pemberton, deceased, late of _____, who died on _____ and Probate of whose Will was granted out of the _____ Probate Registry on _____ to Andrew Pemberton of 14 Moorfield Close, Leeds, LS6 3QR, the executor therein named, are hereby required to send particulars in writing of their claims to the said Andrew Pemberton at 14 Moorfield Close, Leeds, LS6 3QR, on or before _____, after which date the executor will distribute the estate among the persons entitled thereto having regard only to the claims and interests of which the executor has then had notice, and the executor will not be liable to any person of whose claim the executor has not had notice at the time of distribution.

Dated this _____ day of _____.

Andrew Pemberton, Executor
14 Moorfield Close, Leeds, LS6 3QR

Note on placing the notice: go to thegazette.co.uk/wills-and-probate/place-a-deceased-estates-notice, sign in, choose "Place a notice" from the "My Gazette" menu, then "Personal Legal" and "Deceased Estates," and follow the submission process. You will need one of these: the grant of probate, the letter of administration or the death certificate. Keep a copy of the published notice and the publication date for your estate file.
